Advanced Technology That Sets It Apart

The OxyQ6 is designed to deliver a higher level of performance compared than other portables in its class!

It provides up to 20% more oxygen output than its closest competitors.

It also comes with a pulse oximeter — an essential tool for monitoring your oxygen saturation and staying informed about your respiratory health.

In addition, the concentrator itself continuously monitors your breath rate, helping alert you to potential changes so you can stay proactive and aware. By combining enhanced oxygen delivery with intelligent monitoring features, the OxyQ6 offers advanced support designed to give you greater confidence in your daily oxygen therapy.

Flexible Power for Every Situation

The OxyQ6 is designed to keep up with wherever life takes you.

The home power supply plugs into any standard AC outlet for easy charging.

The car power supply connects to the DC outlet in your car, RV, or even a boat — perfect for travel and long days out.

An external battery charger allows you to keep an extra battery charging while you're on the go, so when you return, a fully powered backup is ready to switch out without missing a beat.

We're With You Every Step of the Way.

Purchasing an oxygen concentrator is an important decision — and you shouldn't have to navigate it alone. Our team is here to make the process simple, supportive, and stress-free.

We can check to see if Medicare can help offset the cost of your concentrator. Our team handles the paperwork and works to cut through the red tape for you — so you don't have to.

We offer simple approval financing with payments starting as low as $59 per month. Applications can be taken over the phone, and in most cases we can give you instant approval.

Every concentrator purchased from us includes free lifetime phone support. Our experienced respiratory specialists are just a call away whenever you need help, answers, or reassurance.

Your OxyQ6 includes accidental damage protection for added peace of mind. If your concentrator is dropped or damaged, we'll replace it with a working unit right away — no waiting weeks for repairs or service.

More Than a Supplier — A Partner in Your Care

When you choose OxiMedical, you're not just purchasing equipment. You're gaining a team committed to your mobility, independence, and confidence.
